

Vermont Reserve Component

BRAC 2005 Recommendation:

Transform Reserve Component facilities in the State of Vermont into multi-functional installations that will enhance unit readiness, increase training opportunities, and generate operational efficiencies. These transformed facilities will provide the capability to conduct Soldier Readiness Processing and Home Station Mobilization, reduce the number of substandard/undersized Reserve Component facilities, enhance Anti-Terror/Force-Protection, promote effective recruiting and retention, and enhance the Homeland Security and Homeland Defense capabilities of the Army Reserve and the Army National Guard.

Gains:

- Build 2 new Armed Forces Reserve Centers and 2 new Organizational Maintenance Facilities
 1. AFRC White River Junction with Organizational Maintenance Facility
 2. AFRC Rutland with Organizational Maintenance Facility

Losses:

- Close 4 Army Reserve Centers
 1. Chester Memorial Army Reserve Center and Organizational Maintenance Shop, Chester (move to AFRC White River Junction)
 2. Berlin Army Reserve Center, Berlin (move to AFRC White River Junction)
 3. Army Reserve Center, Courcelle Brothers and Organizational Maintenance Facility, Rutland (move to AFRC Rutland)
 4. Army Reserve Army Maintenance Support Activity, Rutland (move to AFRC Rutland)
- Close 4 Army National Guard Centers with State permission
 1. VTARNG Armory, Ludlow (move to AFRC White River Junction)
 2. VTARNG Armory, North Springfield (move to AFRC White River Junction)
 3. VTARNG Armory, Windsor (move to AFRC White River Junction)
 4. VTARNG Armory, Rutland (move to AFRC Rutland)
